

Please do not change the act. It's nice to enjoy my time at home without being harrassed by a bunch of telemarketers everyday. Maybe the telemarketers should find a better line of work rather than calling and harrassing people to buy their product or service and let us NJ residents be peaceful in our own homes without the annoyance of all their phone calls.